

Southwest Career Technical Academy

Pathway: Culinary Arts

9th Grade	10th Grade	11th Grade	12th Grade
English I/ H	English II/H	Chemistry/H Physics/H Genetics H / Anatomy & Physiology	Pre Calc/Trig H/ AP Calculus/ Dual College Credit Option
Algebra I/H Geometry H	Geometry I/H – Intuitive Geometry Algebra II/H	Culinary Arts I (Periods 2-7)	Culinary Arts II (Periods2-7)
Principles of Science Biology I H	Biology I/H Chemistry/H
Tools/ Freshman Studies	US History/ H/ AP
PE I	PE II
Art/ Arts and Humanities	Health/Drivers Ed	English III	English IV
World History/ H/ AP	Intro to Career Tech Major	Algebra II	US Government
Pre Requisites			Career Technical Fees
Ability to work well with co-workers and the public, individually and as a team. Presentable personal appearance. Good math, reading/spelling, and memorization skills. Upon entrance of junior year, student must acquire a Health Card as mandated by Clark County Health District. An extended day schedule is required to complete this program, as well as taking external credits to meet graduation requirements.			$100 Lab Fee/$15 SkillsUSA Fee/Additional uniform costs
Certifications	Possible Articulated Courses	Post Secondary Options
CCSD Occupational Certificate of Competency	CUL 110 Basic Cookery – 4	Culinary Institute of America Le Cordon Bleu Johnson and Wales The Art Institute CSN UNLV UNR NSC
Career Pathways Available
→Chefs and Cooks →Caterer →Recipe Developer →Food Writer →Banquet Managers and Cooks →Private Chef →Recipe Tester →Food Photographer →Institutional Chefs →Test Kitchen Researcher →Food Stay List →Manager →Small Business Owner →Culinary Educator

*Following the Academic course sequencing fulfills the requirement for millennium scholarship & 21st century course of study provided student maintains the required GPA and passes all proficiency exams.

*Students earning a C or higher in their Career Technical major will earn a CCSD Occupational Certificate of Competency.

*Fees subject to change without notice.

*Administration reserves the right to change course offerings based on staffing and enrollment.